

20260327_Trump Face is Trump Truth

And since they must always reply to my statements:

No, Donald. Contrary to your deluded mindset, running around all over the world harassing and suppressing someone in an attempt to keep them from speaking the truth about who you are is not 'power' - it's a weakness.

A weakness that you are expending countless resources attempting to cover up, hide, and put make-up on top of - you are using makeup to hide your disgusting actions in the exact same way that you are using makeup to hide your disgusting face.

Good luck, old man. I hope that you found it to be worthwhile. You ruined a country, ended the lives of many people, and you are causing my family a whole lot of discomfort so that you can keep plastering lies over the truth of who you really are. (You're an addict.)(You are weakened to the point that you cannot control yourself. You attempt to control others so no one will see it)

FoxNews Trump, today at the LIV golf Tournament.
